New Appointment: Ngāti Tama Ki Te Waipounamu Trust welcomes our new General Manager

The Ngāti Tama Ki Te Waipounamu Trust announce the recent appointment of Frans van Boekhout as General Manager.

With a base in Nelson, Ngāti Tama Ki Te Waipounamu holds a wide range of assets including property, equity, aquaculture and fisheries assets to the value of nearly $50M. The trust's asset holding company continues to assess other investment opportunities.

Frans van Boekhout has more than 30 years' commercial management experience in New Zealand and was previously the General Manager for the Ngāti Kōata Trust and a Director on their commercial businesses. He says that he is excited about the opportunity to assist the Ngāti Tama Ki Te Waipounamu Group with providing a solid base to further the cultural and economic revitalisation of the Ngāti Tama Ki Te Tau Ihu Iwi.

Trust Chair Leanne Manson says we are thrilled to have Frans join the Tama whānau, his business acumen, along with his positive approach to solution management will be a fantastic asset for Ngāti Tama. The Board are looking forward to working together with Frans to support the cultural, social and economic development of Ngāti Tama whānau.

The appointment is effective immediately.
